

Rivers of Living Water

in a few weeks had accepted Christ as her Saviour.

God's Grace is Sufficient

“And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me” (II Cor. 12:9).

God never promised that the Christian would not have temptations and trials, but He did promise that with every temptation there would be a way of escape, and that with every trial there would be strength to endure. When our weakness is most pressing His strength is most perfect.

Christ is Able to Save to the Uttermost

Perhaps some of you said last night, “I cannot live a yielded life in Hong Kong.” You thought of your non-Christian home, of your social circle with its gaiety and worldliness, of your business life with its temptations to dishonesty and graft, and you said, “I can’t live a yielded life in such surroundings.” Yes, you can if you let the roots of faith reach into the soil of this eternal fact, “Christ is able to save to the uttermost.” He has both the power to cleanse from sin and to keep from sinning.
